A Little Branson History, Facts, & Figures!

Branson – How It All Began!
Branson gained popularity from Harold Bell Wright’s novel “The Shepherd of the Hills,” published in 1907. In 1959, the Mabe brothers performed as The Baldknobbers on the shores of Lake Taneycomo, and in 1962, the Presley family began entertaining in the area. In 1960, the Herschend family opened an attraction atop Marvel Cave, which was already a popular tourist draw; the park continues to operate today as Silver Dollar City, an award winning theme park that attracts thousands of visitors every year. In the early 90’s, Branson became nationally known thanks to the CBS program, 60 Minutes. They loved Branson and produced a very favorable segment, dubbing the area a “Country Music Mecca.” Several Branson stars were interviewed on the program, including Mel Tillis and BoxCar Willie, and their success convinced other big-name entertainers that Branson was the place to be!

Wow...Branson has Lakes in a Big Way!

Branson boasts three incredible lakes, each with its own special qualities perfectly suited to a variety of water sports and recreational activities! And a variety of outdoor activities are just waiting to be discovered...by you!

So, you love to fish? Come to the place where world-class fishing is second nature! The Branson area’s massive and stunningly beautiful Table Rock Lake offers excellent warm water fishing, and abounds with largemouth bass, spotted bass, white bass, crappie, channel cat, bream, and other pan fish. The chilly waters of Lake Taneycomo, created by Table Rock Dam drawing the cold bottom waters of Table Rock Lake down into the river-like smaller lake, is loaded with rainbow and brown trout. The dam’s tailwaters are replenished by the Shepherd of the Hills Fish Hatchery, and seldom freeze, so excellent trout fishing is available year-round on Taneycomo; however, the spring and fall months are best for good bass fishing. Once those cooler waters reach Powersite Dam in nearby Forsyth, they pour over the dam into Bull Shoals Lake. This eastern Taney County section of Bull Shoals also appears river-like, but the waters are warm and offer standard varieties of fish like largemouth, spotted, and white bass; stripers, crappie, channel cat, bream, walleye, and other pan fish. This upper end of Bull Shoals Lake is famous for miles around for its springtime abundance of white bass and walleye.

The Lennon Sisters and the Osmonds take the stage again in the Andy Williams Christmas Extravaganza at the Andy Williams Performing Arts Center and Hallmark’s Maxine’s Christmas Carol delivers the iconic story with song, dance and a dash of attitude.

At King’s Castle Theatre Christmas Wonderland is just one of four shows staged. Puttin’ on the Ritz, New Jersey Nights, and Dublin’s Irish Tenors and The Celtic Ladies all incorporate Christmas music and fun into the shows.

Christmas shopping turns from frantic to fun here. Crisp winter days are perfect for strolling the shops in Historic Downtown Branson. Be sure to check out Dick’s 5 & 10 – with roughly 250,000 items, there is truly something for everyone!

Trees, Lights & Parades

All around town, the Ozark Mountain Christmas Tree Competition will make this season sparkle more than ever.

With the goal of becoming “America’s Christmas Tree City”, Branson has undertaken the challenge of presenting the most amazing, varied and beautiful collection of Christmas trees to be found anywhere in this country. Whether it’s a 80 foot dancing tree of lights at the Branson Landing roundabout with its nightly show of dazzling color and motion or creative trees like the 200 bright orange life jackets at Ride The Ducks and the strings of colorful racing flags and lights at The Track Family Fun Parks, you will be sure to want to snap a photo or two.

At Silver Dollar City you’ll find a luminous Holiday Light Parade, a five story special effects Christmas tree, Christmas shows, countless kinds of food, and a multitude of shops. Branson’s Gift of Lights provides a beautiful drive-thru light display.

“The Most Wonderful Time of the Year” Parade is November 4, 2017, honoring “Mr. Christmas” himself, the late Andy Williams. It’s 10 am at Branson Landing. Branson’s 69th Annual Adoration Parade is December 3, 2017, at dusk/5 pm and begins with the lighting of the largest area nativity scene.

Patriotism

Branson’s holiday season also includes Branson’s Veterans Homecoming Week. Our country’s largest Veterans celebration is November 5-11. The opening ceremony features the “Vets for Vets Celebration Show” and kicks off Branson’s Veterans Homecoming week. Other events include the 84th Annual Branson Veterans Day Parade on November 11, 11 am.

While Branson celebrates military veterans every day of the year, this week pulls out all the stops.

Branson Loves America’s Veterans

To paint a picture reflecting the true essence of Branson, you would only need three colors...red, white, and blue. Here, patriotism is genuine, especially when it comes to our respect for veterans. There are many special national holidays and area events that honor our nation’s veterans, but Branson pays tribute to our military heroes each and every day of the year. We celebrate and salute both veterans and active duty personnel at every opportunity, regardless of where, how, and with what branch of the military they served. Our shows do everything from dedicating songs to asking audiences to honor those veterans in attendance with applause. Events are held to honor significant dates, especially during Branson’s Veterans Homecoming Week, America’s largest Veterans Day celebration. And it’s not just about one day, it’s a seven-day tribute honoring veterans who have sacrificed their time, their health, the big events in the lives of their loved ones, and more often than not we care to think, even their lives to protect the freedoms we all hold near and dear. Branson never takes these freedoms for granted and never shies away from expressing heartfelt feelings of appreciation and sincere patriotism.

You won’t find a more genuine love for veterans in Branson than at the Branson Tourism Center. Established by a proud veteran of the United States Marine Corps, Branson Tourism Center’s passion for ensuring that our veterans and active duty personnel always feel welcome in Branson is inherent in everything we do. Every year, Branson Tourism Center hosts a celebration to honor recipients of the Purple Heart, and actively supports a variety of veteran focused events and services throughout the community.
